

Regulation Proposal

1. Drafting Department: AIGS
2. Title of Regulation: Academic Internal Regulations of the International Education Institute
3. Type of Proposal: Amendment
4. Reasons for Proposal
 - A. Application of the Ministry of Education's criteria for recognition of English-track programs for international students
 - Reflection of committee resolutions
 - Correction of errors in provisions
5. Main Contents
 - A. See the comparison table of the old and new provisions.

Attachment: One copy of the comparison table of the old and new provisions.

End.

June 10, 2026

Proposer: Dean of AIGS, Lee Han Young

Comparison Table of Old and New Provisions

Academic Internal Regulations of AIGS

Current Regulations	Amended Regulations	Remarks
Article 5 (Admission Qualifications) The admission qualifications for each AIGS degree program require English proficiency: TOEFL 530, CBT 197, IBT 71, IELTS 5.5, CEFR B2, TEPS 600 [New TEPS 327] , etc.	Article 5 (Admission Qualifications) The admission qualifications for each AIGS degree program require English proficiency: TOEIC 520, TOEFL CBT 197, IBT 59 [New IBT 3.5], IELTS 5.5, CEFR B2, New TEPS 202 , etc.; the rest remains the same as the current regulations.	Citing the Ministry of Education's English proficiency test standards for international students in English-track programs (March 26, 2026) / Unification of English score standards with the Korean-language program
Article 6 (Required Documents) ① Omitted. 1. One application form 2. Two passport photos taken within three months of the submission date 3. Statement of faith 4. Degree certificate 5. Academic transcript 6. One certificate of English proficiency 7. Three letters of recommendation 8. Study plan 9. Major study plan, excluding the Master of Divinity program 10. One scholarship application form 11. One financial statement of the applicant or sponsor 12. One health certificate 13. One copy of passport 14. One certificate of financial capacity 15. Application fee 16. Other documents required for visa issuance ② Notwithstanding the documents listed in Paragraph 1, additional documents may be required if deemed necessary by the President .	Article 6 (Required Documents) ① No change 1. No change 2. One passport photo taken within six months of the submission date 3 – 6. No change . 7. Two to three letters of recommendation 8. Deleted 9. No change 10. Deleted 11 – 15. No change . 16. Other documents required for visa issuance ② Notwithstanding the documents listed in Paragraph 1, additional documents may be required if deemed necessary by the Dean .	Deletion of unnecessary admission documents

Current Regulations	Amended Regulations	Remarks
Article 16 (Curriculum) ① The curriculum for each degree program shall be separately determined by the President after deliberation by the Committee.	Article 16 (Curriculum) ① The curriculum for each degree program shall be determined by the President after deliberation by the Committee.	Deletion of unnecessary wording
Article 17 (Registration and Tuition Fees) AIGS students shall pay tuition and register for each semester in accordance with the following subparagraphs: 1. Course registration, including thesis credits: tuition according to the number of credits registered for the semester 2. Students who register for zero credits but need to maintain student status, such as those who have not passed the comprehensive examination, preliminary examination, or Bible examination, are not required to pay separate tuition.	Article 17 (Registration and Tuition Fees) No change 1. No change 2. Students shall complete credit registration and thesis registration every semester. Students may not maintain student status without course registration solely for reasons such as the comprehensive examination, preliminary examination, or Bible examination.	In the Korean-language program, maintaining student status is possible; however, for international students, maintaining only student status should be avoided for graduation management purposes.
Article 19 (Course Registration) ② Omitted. ③ Students in the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program may register for a minimum of 15 credits and a maximum of 20 credits each semester.	Article 19 (Course Registration) ② . No change ③ Students in the Master of Divinity (M.Div.) program may register for a minimum of 12 credits and a maximum of 20 credits each semester.	Aligned with the Korean-language program
Article 20 (Change and Withdrawal of Course Registration) ③ Course withdrawal shall not be permitted if the number of credits after withdrawal falls below the minimum number of credits for course registration stipulated in Article 18 .	Article 20 (Change and Withdrawal of Course Registration) ③ Course withdrawal shall not be permitted if the number of credits after withdrawal falls below the minimum number of credits for course registration stipulated in Article 19 .	Article 18 concerns thesis re-registration; correction of error
Article 24 (Seasonal Classes) ① Omitted ② Classes shall be conducted on a full-time basis, and theoretical courses shall grant one credit for 15 hours of lectures. ③ The number of students permitted to enroll in each course shall be determined in consideration of the quota for the semester.	Article 24 (Seasonal Classes) ① No change. ② In principle, classes shall be conducted as full-time, in-person classes; however, online classes may be offered. ③ For theoretical courses, one credit shall be granted for 15 hours of lectures.	Reflects current practice and committee decisions

Current Regulations	Amended Regulations	Remarks
④ Omitted	and courses with fewer than 10 enrolled students shall, in principle, be cancelled. However, foreign language courses shall be exempt from this rule. ④ No change.
Article 44 (Foreign Languages) ① Omitted ② Omitted. ③ Students in AIGS integrated master's–doctoral programs and doctoral degree programs shall pass a foreign language examination or complete the relevant course in accordance with the following subparagraphs. However, if the student has completed a foreign language course in the master's program of this graduate school, it may be recognized. 1. Old Testament and New Testament majors: German or French 2. Systematic theology, historical theology, and missiology majors : one of German, French, Latin, or another appropriate foreign language approved by the Committee	Article 44 (Foreign Languages) ① No change. ② No change ③ Students in AIGS integrated master's–doctoral programs and doctoral degree programs shall pass a foreign language examination or complete the relevant course in accordance with the following subparagraphs. However, if the student has completed a foreign language course in the master's program of this graduate school, it may be recognized. 1. No change 2. Systematic theology, historical theology, missiology, and practical theology majors : one of German, French, Latin, or another appropriate foreign language approved by the Committee	Addition due to the establishment of the doctoral program in practical theology for the 2026 academic year